May 7, 2010 at Nova Southeastern University, Ft. Lauderdale
Breakfast & Event from 7:30 AM to 10:45 AM

The topic of this CSCMP South Florida Roundtable seminar is the August 1, 2010 deadline for 100% screening of cargo going onto passenger airlines. Currently the requirement is already at 50%, going to 75% in May, but the final step to 100% will for sure mean significant process changes for everyone involved with shipping air freight.

Receive the latest details and updates directly from senior TSA officials and other industry experts on the TSA's Certified Cargo Screening Program (CCSP) and Certified Cargo Screening Facilities (CCSF). This seminar will focus on the new TSA regulation and its enforcement, the impact upon the cargo community, and how best to comply with the new TSA requirements, especially for shippers!
